CONFERENCE BACKGROUND

The National Indian Council on Aging, Inc. (NICOA) is a 501 (c) (3) not-for-profit organization founded in 1976. Our mission is to advocate for the improved comprehensive health, social services, and economic wellbeing of American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) elders. NICOA provides testimony before federal, state, and tribal policymakers on behalf of older AI/AN elders. The board is comprised of 13 AI/AN elders representing regions from across the United States. The membership meets biennially to elect new board members and to establish the NICOA aging policy agenda for the next two years. The biennial meeting is the place where elders can educate and recommend solutions to policymakers to help improve aging services across Indian Country.

The conference attendees represent over 2,000 AI/AN elders, stakeholders, elected tribal representatives, government agencies, and aging network providers. Our voting member elders actively participate in caucus sessions representing each of the 12 NICOA regions, participate in the election of board members, submit aging specific resolutions, revise bylaws, and develop a collective aging policy agenda for NICOA to advocate in Washington, D.C.

CONFERENCE AIMS

The 2020 American Indian Elders Conference is the elders' forum; the place to voice concerns, provide recommendations on policies that are important to aging older Indians and to receive up-to-date information and resources to help elders age at home and in their own communities. NICOA works closely with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Labor to advocate for grant funded programs and services such as Title VI Services for Native Americans (AOA Title VI), Indian Health Services, Medicare/ Medicaid, Social Security, Senior Community Service Employment Program and others. Officials from federal, state, and tribal services and departments are invited to listen, learn, and share in the discussion about the successes and concerns impacting aging in Indian Country.

Emphasizing the importance of the future and those who will live through it, this statement seeks to address the lessons that can be learned from the past. Striving to prevent the next generation from making the same mistakes as its predecessors.

We want this collection of your letters to highlight those events in your life that have inspired you every day. Things that you want the next generation to know. The history of "you" and your life, what would you have them remember to make their life better, and continue to strengthen our language, culture, and history. We have a rich history and want to be sure it is carried forward.

NICOA is asking that every Elder, write a letter to the next generation. Giving them living knowledge of what they can do better, how they can learn from your mistakes and lifelong adventures. A personal handwritten letter to the next generation will be a strong, heartfelt way to ask them to carry on the Culture, Language, and Histories of our Tribes.

Attached to this request is a release of your written letter to allow NICOA to put your handwritten document, along with a transcribed copy in a book for publication. You can ask to be anonymous, but we want the next generation to know about "YOU". What you have accomplished, where you came from, and what you wish for them.

If you have any questions, please contact Cheryl J Archibald, at (505) 292-2001, or email carchibald@nicoa.org. We will be collecting these letters until December 31, 2020 and beyond. Please consider adding your knowledge to the next generation, you have a lot to offer.
