

Quality Health Associates
of North Dakota

Center for Rural Health
University of North Dakota
School of Medicine & Health Sciences

present

Age Friendly Care in the Great Plains

Virtual Symposium

Older Adults, Family Caregivers and Community Workers

Tuesday, March 30, 2021, 7:45 AM – 11:45 AM CT

FREE learning opportunity for older adults, families and caregivers with regional experts in Geriatric healthcare for the American Indian populations.

Time (CT)	Session	Speakers
8:00 AM– 8:45 AM	Isolation and Loneliness	Tami Jollie-Trottier, PhD, Clinical Psychologist, Seven Stone: Center for Behavioral Health & Healing
9:00 AM– 9:45 AM	Brain Health and Dementia Prevention	J Neil Henderson, PhD, Professor, University of Minnesota
10:00 AM– 10:45 AM	Legal and Ethical Implications of vaccines	Monica Mayer, MD, Council Women and Physician, Quentin N Burdick Memorial Hospital
11:00 AM– 11:45 AM	Functional mobility for the Joy of Living	Lavonne Fox, Ph.D., O.T.R./L and Scinda Janssen, Ph.D., O.T.R./L, Occupational Therapy, University of North Dakota

Click here to register!

Department of Geriatrics, UND is a board approved provider as approved by North Dakota Board of Social Worker Examiners. Social Workers can obtain up to 3 face-to-face contact hours for this activity upon live attendance and completion an evaluation survey to be distributed following the event.

Visit us at: <https://www.dakotageriatrics.org/events>